2.4.1 Skills Enabling Employment

The competency standard units incorporate a range of employment-based skills that are expected of individuals in a workplace.

The skills for employment should be achieved and confirmed consistent with the application of each competency standard unit relative to the qualification to which it contributes. Assessment shall be applied holistically and confirm that the critical aspects of evidence have been demonstrated to an extent that indicates understanding of the following:

Skill for Employment	Critical aspect of evidence
1 Developing and using skills within a real workplace	Demonstrates an ability to develop and use spatial, dexterity and technology skills as well as health, safety and housekeeping skills meaningful to a workplace environment.
2 Learning to learn in the workplace	Demonstrates an ability to access, confirm and learn, knowledge and culture related to, and used in, a workplace environment.
3 Reflecting on the outcome and process of work task	Demonstrates an ability to reflect on performance of the work task, its outcome and the process used in completing the task in a workplace environment.
4 Interacting and understanding of the context of the work task	Demonstrates an ability to interact in real work tasks, understand the context of the task within a work environment, and speak and write to related personnel/communities to a standard expected in the workplace/industry sector.
5 Planning and organising the meaningful work task	Demonstrates an ability to prepare, organise and complete real workplace tasks to workplace standards, including selecting appropriate tools/equipment to complete tasks in a workplace environment and the setting and achievement of personal goals.
6 Performing the work task in non-routine or contingent situations	Demonstrates an ability to seek and apply solutions to problems, using mathematical and cognitive skills relevant to a workplace environment, and/or seek advice from appropriate personnel when in doubt.
